

CREATIVE RESPONSE TO CONFLICT
INVITES EDUCATORS, & OTHERS
TO A TRAINING

PEACE RESTORED

INTRODUCTION TO RESTORATIVE PRACTICES

Join Creative Response to Conflict on Zoom to learn community-building activities you can use online and in person to begin holding circles.

- Learn about the 3 tiers of restorative practices and circle-keeping.
- Practice experiential activities you can use in classrooms and community groups on cooperation, communication, conflict resolution, problem-solving, and affirmation.
- Explore the connection between restorative practices, social-emotional learning, and anti-racism/anti-bias.
- Develop tools to build relationships that decrease conflict, increase connection, and create a safe environment to maximize learning and team work!

PEACE RESTORED FOR TRAINERS

INTERMEDIATE TRAINING FOR TRAINERS IN RESTORATIVE PRACTICES

Creative Response to Conflict trainers build on the concepts and activities explored in the introductory workshop. This workshop will:

- enable participants to train others in introductory circle-keeping & restorative practices;
- delve more deeply into activities & techniques that allow groups to prevent harm and encourage growth and restoration of relationships;
- provide valuable tools you can share with others in your school or community, to ensure successful incorporation of restorative practices.
